

Official Press Release

Guadeloupe Islands Tourism Board

JETBLUE OFFICIALLY RESUMING ITS NONSTOP SERVICE TO THE GUADELOUPE ISLANDS THIS NOVEMBER, JUST IN TIME FOR THE KICKOFF OF ACCLAIMED SAILING RACE “ROUTE DU RHUM”.

New York, July 10, 2022 – Jetblue nonstop flights to Guadeloupe (PTP) from New York (JFK) are set to resume on November 5. Guadeloupe Islands aficionados can already book their tickets online through the NY based carrier’s website. JetBlue will operate three times a week on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays.

“We are thrilled about the return of Jetblue in November, these are excellent news for the destination and for Americans who are eager to discover our French Caribbean archipelago for a unique experience.” Said Sonia TAILLEPIERRE, President of the Guadeloupe Islands Tourism Board.

The Guadeloupe archipelago will be kicking off this winter season with the Route du Rhum - Destination Guadeloupe, the internationally acclaimed transatlantic sailing race that will leave the french shores of Saint Malo, Brittany, on November 6 to reach Pointe-a-Pitre, Guadeloupe, around a fortnight later.

138 skippers will set sail for an epic Atlantic solo crossing that they have been dreaming of for months, even for years. The best solo racers in the world, professionals, and amateurs, meet every 4 years to taste “The Magic of the Rhum”.

“This is a highly anticipated season for all our partners. The future of travel to the Guadeloupe Islands is bright and the locals are ready to welcome Americans again” adds Mrs Taillepierre

The return of the Accor Group to Guadeloupe is also a strong sign of dynamism for the destination. The opening of The Royal Key, a 4-star Pullman brand Resort under Accor Group management is on the way. Scheduled to be ready for the 2023/2024 winter season, the 102-room and suite Pullman property will be combined with a high-end spa complex.
